Hotel introduction:

Best Western Hangzhou Meiyuan Hotel is the first member hotel of the world's largest independently-owned hotel chain --- Best Western International --- in Eastern China and a four-star business hotel. The hotel, with excellent management concept and service level, repeatedly won "Global Diamond Service Awards" of Best Western International and "Top Ten Hotels" of Zhejiang. It has a high reputation and market awareness in the industry.

The hotel is located in Canal District, adjacent to Beijing-Hangzhou Grand Canal. With convenient traffic, it will take only ten minutes by car from the hotel to the famous scenic area---West Lake and the first National Wetland Park --- Xixi Wetland. In the District, there are Hangzhou Tower, Wulin Intime, International Building, Hangzhou Department Store and other commercial complexes. At the same time, nearby Wulin Fashion Street, Creative Park of Silk Union 168, Zhang Xiao-quan Scissors Museum, Wang Xing-ji Fan Museum, Du Jin-sheng Silk Museum and West Lake Culture and Arts Center allow you to experience the long history and culture as well as personalized art life of Hangzhou; just a few minutes away from the hotel, "Xinyifang Food Street", "Shengli River Food Street" and "Dadou Road Food Street" will let you taste real Hangzhou snacks and food.

In 2012, the hotel was upgraded. Chiangnan culture elements of various water landscapes, carved rails and painted columns as well as Hangzhou silk and Suzhou embroidery highlight characteristic flavor of "poetic Chiangnan". The hotel has 234 guest rooms with refined decoration and complete facilities, including the bedding which is the most suitable for human body structure, new LCD TV and free broadband. Yue Chiangnan Chinese Restaurant, Rejoicing Café and Kissho Japanese Restaurant are decorated simply and with personality. There is an all-purpose hall for 300 people and a conference center with six meeting rooms of various sizes. Complete facilities and professional services make it an ideal place for events and business meetings.

Far away from bustle and hubbub, Best Western Hangzhou will give you a relaxing and comfortable business or vacation trip.
